

Tisch Environmental, Inc. is pleased to announce that Intecon, Inc. has earned exclusive distributorship in Mexico, Central America, South America, Singapore and Indonesia for all Tisch Environmental products. Intecon has many local distributors, labs and service centers in these territories who are familiar with our products, are knowledgeable with local regulations and speak the native language. Intecon Inc. and their distributors are now the sole representative for all Tisch Environmental, Inc. products whose destination is Mexico, South America, Latin America and Indonesia. Intecon Inc. brings a committed sales/service staff and has been a trusted and successful distributor of Tisch Environmental for many years. All Intecon distributors are qualified to install, service, maintain and support Tisch Environmental products. This collaboration will support a primary business goal of efficient distribution and local support for our products. This exclusive arrangement will further our focus on providing exceptional customer service and product support as we continue bringing new and reliable instrumentation to the marketplace. We are grateful for our partnership with Intecon and encourage all Mexican, South American, Latin American or Indonesian customers to contact them direct.
